As per UGC guidelines every institution should conduct Induction Program.

The term induction is generally used to describe the whole process where by

The incumbents adjust to or acclimatize to the new environment. It has to be well planned as the purpose is to educate the new entrants about the environment in a particular institution, and connect them with the people in it.

The new entrants have to be given a clear picture of the institution- about the infrastructure, amenities provided, its policies, vision and mission, core values, staff and their supervision as mentors, the library and the facilities. It provides laboratories and their equipment, classrooms, technical assistance and many more.

Though orientation classes are organized by the Controller of Examinations, Librarian and staff members, the new entrants should be taken round the college to have firsthand knowledge of everything available in the institution.

It serves as experiential learning; Students Induction covers a number of different aspects like Socializing meeting other new students, senior students, lectures by eminent People.

The goal of higher education is to nurture human beings responsible for their betterment and capable of sustaining society and nature, besides enabling them to procure a position to earn their livelihood. The incoming undergraduate students are often influenced by their parents and society to join higher study without understanding their own interests and talents. There is high probability that students fail to develop an understanding about the goals of Educational Institutes as well as higher education. The graduating student must have knowledge and meta-skills related to his/her work, and as a citizen.

From the feedback obtained from the students, it is evident that they are thoroughly pleased with the environment, facilities provided and so on.
